A rare opportunity to acquire an 1880's grand Victorian terrace in one of Potts Point's premier streets. Soaring ceilings and elegant rooms of large proportion set over three levels, this superb space offers the astute buyer the chance to create a magnificent contemporary home whilst retaining the graceful original features synonymous with these historic houses. A grand cedar staircase and beautiful Oregon and hardwood flooring, along with numerous marble fireplaces sets the scene for endless possibilities to reimagine this stunning residence. The graceful living and formal dining area and the exquisite master bedroom with its original arched French doors and private verandah overlook charming tree-lined Victoria Street. A quiet sanctuary just a short walk to the buzz of Potts Point, the CBD and Sydney Harbour. A unique opportunity to purchase a slice of Sydney's rich and colourful history.
